- HL contacted Ryan Ray regarding the automatic WiFi stat counter. Ryan said the stats would be available in the cloud and that a password had been emailed to the librarian account. HL could not find this password (and email to Ken confirmed that he did not know of any email with a password) so HL requested the email be sent again. Ryan confirmed that one would be sent. A week passed with no email, HL contacted Ryan again but has not heard back (this was a week before the COVID-19 outbreak began shutting down businesses across the province, so it is possible Ryan is unavailable at the moment).
